Examiner's amendments to claims

Applicants thank the examiner for the telephone discussion on November 4, 2009 where Applicants' attorney Bing Ai and the Examiner discussed and agreed to the amendment to Claim 27 as set forth in the Examiner's amendment in the Notice of Allowance.

During the telephone call, it was also agreed that Claims 25-26 be canceled via the examiner's amendment. This status of Claims 25-26 is not indicated in the Notice of Allowance.

On page 4 of the Notice of Allowance, Applicants believe the Examiner meant to refer to claims 22 and 27, rather than "claims 22 and 25" in the comments.

Applicants' comments on notice of allowance

Applicants recognize that in accordance with M.P.E.P. § 1302.14, the Examiner's reasons for allowance need not set forth all of the details as to why the claims are allowed.

Applicants do not concede that the Examiner's stated reasons for allowance are the only reasons for which the claims are allowable. The claims may be allowable for other reasons as well. In particular, Applicants do not concede that all of the limitations identified by the Examiner are necessary to distinguish the prior art of record or to satisfy the requirements of 35 U.S.C. § 112. In addition, the Examiner does not assert, and Applicants would not concede, that the Examiner's reasons have any bearing on the patentability of claims in any other applications directed to the disclosed subject matter.

In addition, each dependent claim stands on its own and is allowable on its own merits. In particular, each dependent claim may be allowable on the basis of a combination of some of the features recited in the dependent claim and its base claim(s), which combination of features may not include all of the limitations identified in the Examiner's reasons for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,

Date:December 16, 2009
